18 On January 25, 2008, Deputy Attorney General Sylvie P.
19 Snyder filed a declaration and request for extension of time to 20 comply with the Court's January 11, 2008 Order, which required
21 Ms. Snyder to obtain Defendant Torres' last known contact 22 information from the California Department of Corrections and 23 Rehabilitation ("CDCR") and provide this information to the U.S.
24 Marshal in a confidential memorandum in order to permit service
25 to be effected upon Torres. See Doc. No. 47.

26 According to Ms. Snyder's declaration, she is in the process
27 of working with the CDCR's legal section and the litigation
28 coordinator at Calipatria State Prison, who are attempting to

1 obtain authorization from Torres for the CDCR to accept service
2 on his behalf. Snyder Decl., ¶ 3. Ms. Snyder expects to have a
3 response from the CDCR and/or the litigation coordinator within 4 two weeks. Id., ¶ 6.

5 Again, the Court's January 11, 2008 Order required Ms.
6 Snyder to obtain Defendant Torres' last known contact information
7 from the CDCR and provide this information to the U.S. Marshal.
8 Thus, the Court's Order did not contemplate that authorization be 9 obtained from Defendant Torres for the CDCR to accept service on 10 his behalf. Although the Court hereby GRANTS the request for a 11 two week extension of time to comply with its Order, the Court
12 reiterates that Deputy Attorney General Snyder has been ordered 13 to obtain Defendant Torres' last known contact information from 14 the CDCR and provide this information to the U.S. Marshal in a 15 confidential memorandum indicating that the summons and complaint
16 is to be delivered to the specified address. If the CDCR does 17 not obtain authorization to accept service on behalf of Defendant
18 Torres, the Deputy Attorney General shall nonetheless fully 19 comply with the January 11, 2008 Order on or before February 8, 20 2008. If the Deputy Attorney General is not able to locate an 21 address for Defendant Torres, she shall file a Declaration with 22 the Court to that effect by no later than February 8, 2008.

23 IT IS SO ORDERED.
